

RECRUITMENT OF TRUSTEES

Howgill Family Centre works to improve the lives of children, families and their communities in Copeland.

Howgill is a very well established local charity founded in the late 1970's. It has a strong reputation, with service users, communities and other agencies, for providing excellent services and support. We have centres in Whitehaven, Cleator Moor, Egremont and Millom.

Howgill is a registered charity governed by unpaid volunteer Trustees. Trustees are looking to recruit two outstanding individuals to strengthen governance by widening the range of skills and experience on the Board. Particular skills being sought include public health, PR, marketing and Early Years.

The rewards are the satisfaction of overseeing an organisation that is making a positive difference to the lives of thousands of children and families in the area.
